

Fall 2012 Course Series in

URBAN DESIGN, ARCHITECTURE, AND LANDSCAPE

Take one or two 8-week courses!

First 8-week Session

*TTH 2:20 – 5:00, SBS West
($100 course fee)*

Take 'em both for 6 credits!

Second 8-week Session

TTH 2:20 – 5:00, SBS West

GSP 303 Community Design

- Train Trip to Pasadena and Los Angeles
- Extreme Makeover: Flagstaff Edition

(2011 National Applied Teaching Award by the Association of American Geographers)

COURSE TOPICS AND THEMES:

- The urban design Tool Box: Designing more livable places
- Public Spaces, Third Places, and Lessons from Europe
- Redesigning the American Suburb: It's a Sprawl World
- Principles of Human Scaled Communities.
- Designing the Street for multi-modal transportation
- Transit-Oriented Development (TOD)
- Creating mixed-use neighborhoods
- Downtown in the New American City
- Form-based codes and the New Urbanism

GSP 399 Architecture, Landscape & Preservation

- Local Walking Tours and Outdoor Exercises
- Architecture and Landscape Blogging Project

COURSE TOPICS AND THEMES:

- American and European architectural styles through history
- History and production of the American suburb
- Influence of cultural movements on human landscape design
- Roadside America and the influence of the automobile
- The historic preservation movement and preservation approaches
- Pros and cons of modernism on architecture and design
- Green and sustainable building trends
- History and influence of urban planning in Europe and America
- Design and production of a professional blog

MORE INFO:

Professor Tom Paradis

Thomas.paradis@nau.edu

<http://architecturestyles.org>

